this contributed volume is the result of a july 2010 workshop at the university of wuppertal interdisciplinary centre for science and technology studies which brought together world wide experts from physics philosophy and history in order to address a set of questions first posed in the 1950s how do we compare spacetime theories how do we judge objectively which is the best theory is there even a unique answer to this question the goal of the workshop and of this book is to contribute to the development of a meta theory of spacetime theories such a meta theory would reveal insights about specific spacetime theories by distilling their essential similarities and differences deliver a framework for a class of theories that could be helpful as a blueprint to build other meta theories and provide a higher level viewpoint for judging which theory most accurately describes nature but rather than drawing a map in broad strokes the focus is on particularly rich regions in the space of spacetime theories this work will be of interest to physicists as well as philosophers and historians of science working with or interested in general relativity and or space time and gravitation more generally
